“Neither do I condemn you; go . . . sin no more.”* | 8:10, 11 |

Attempting to condemn Jesus, the Pharisees brought an adulteress to Him for judgment; but in so doing they ended up condemning themselves, and Jesus forgave the woman.

*“For the Law was given through Moses; grace and truth were realized through Jesus Christ.” John 1:17

*“Be kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ also has forgiven you.” Ephesians 4:32

There is a righteousness in the Law, but through the death of the Savior, there is a greater grace in the gospel. All have a past, those who come to Christ leave with a future.
